| 2 | TUESDAY 13JUN17 | Arrival at Dublin Airport . Meet, assist, and transfer with guide to Dublin (on group flights). Hotel check-in and day at leisure , some time to self-navigate Dublin. | Dublin |
| 3 | WEDNESDAY 14JUN17 | This morning, embark on a panoramic city tour, discovering the north and south sides of the River Liffey. This area offers great striking monuments such as the GPO (General Post Office) on the city's main thoroughfare, O'Connell Street, the Custom House along the quays, and Phoenix Park, the largest public park in Europe. The sophisticated south side offers vast Georgian squares, such as Merrion Square, location of the Oscar Wilde House and the quality shops along Grafton Street. View the former home of Bram Stoker, author of Dracula. Continue with a visit to the Grand Lodge of Ireland, the second most senior lodge in the world and the oldest in continuous existence. Built in the 1860s by Edward Holmes, every room in this award-winning building houses a different decorative style, including Greek and Gothic Revival. Explore its museum, providing insight into the history of the freemasons in Ireland. This evening enjoy a Welcome Dinner together. | Dublin MEALS: B, D |
| 4 | THURSDAY 15JUN17 | Morning departure to Galway, Ireland, straddling the River Corrib. En route, visit Charleville Castle, a neo-Gothic castle that was the family seat of the Burys, said to be Freemasons. In 1798, Charles William Bury commissioned architect Francis Johnston, who designed the interior entrance of the castle to simulate a grand lodge. The building displays many signs of Freemasonry with symbols used throughout its design. Continue to Galway, enjoying a Freemason walking tour, including a visit to the Church of St. Nicholas, uncovering its hidden Templar origins, apprentice pillar and symbolic tombs. Onto the former Freemason Hall in Galway City. This evening, enjoy a medieval Banquet at Cloonacauneen Castle. One of Galway's best known Tower Houses rising up to over fifty feet in ivy splendor above the lonely peaty plains of the Curraghline, it is a stunning 15th century Norman castle situated on outskirts of Galway city in idyllic country side surroundings. | Galway / Athlone MEALS: B,D |

| DATE | ITINERARY IN BRIEF | ACCOMMODATION |
|--------------------------|--|--------------------------------|
| 5 FRIDAY 16JUN17 | Following breakfast, depart Galway to Belfast, capital of Northern Ireland via Causey Farm for an authentic hands-on experience of living Irish culture. Explore this 300 acre beef cattle and sheep farm, followed by lunch onsite. This afternoon, continue to Belfast with dinner at the hotel. | Belfast MEALS: B,L,D |
| 6 SATURDAY 17JUN17 | Set sail to Edinburgh, Scotland on the Belfast to Cairnryan ferry crossing. Hotel check-in and dinner upon arrival. | Edinburgh MEALS: B,D |
| 7 SUNDAY 18JUN17 | The day begins with a Freemason walking tour, exploring the buildings of Edinburgh associated with the fraternity. Visit the Grand Lodge of Scotland and Museum, founded in 1736. Following a guided tour of the Freemason's Hall, visit the museum which houses the oldest masonic records in the world. End the day at the panoramic Edinburgh Castle, a stronghold for over 3,000 years. A dominating rock structure overlooking the capital city atop an extinct volcano, the castle has witnessed many of the defining events of Scottish history and has dominated its surroundings with majesty for centuries. | Edinburgh MEALS: B |
| 8 MONDAY 19JUN17 | Today journey to Stirling, Scotland for visits to the Battle of Bannockburn Visitor Centre, situated at one of Scotland's most important historic sites, and National Wallace Monument, commemorating the 13th century Scottish hero Sir William Wallace. Inside Bannockburn, cutting edge technology experience propels visitors to the heart of the action, with its park grounds and restored commemorative monuments creating a place for quiet contemplation. At the Wallace Monument, one of the most distinctive landmarks on the Stirling skyline, commemorate Sir William Wallace, the Scottish patriot and martyr who triumphed over King Edward's army at The Battle of Stirling Bridge. The afternoon is spent at a whisky distillery nestled at the foothills of the Highlands. After seeing the age old process of milling, mashing, fermenting and distilling single malt whisky at Scotland's oldest distillery, participate in The Taste Experience. In the brand new interactive zone learn about Scotland's favorite whisky, The Famous Grouse, and how it is blended to perfection. Explore scent pods, sensory, touch & challenge games and DVDs. Finish with a flight with The Grouse, a bird's eye view of some of Scotland's best known landmarks. Return to Edinburgh. | Edinburgh MEALS: B |

| 9 TUESDAY 20JUN17 | Travel inland this morning, to Glasgow, Scotland. Spend time in the Roslin (formerly spelled Rosslyn or Roslyn), a village outside of Edinburgh. Visit Rosslyn Chapel, an architecturally unique church packed with ornate Gothic stone carvings. Some are believed to show New World plants such as cacti and corn, even though the carvings were created a century before Columbus landed in North America. Upon arrival to Glasgow, pay a visit to the magnificent Necropolis, overlooking Glasgow Cathedral, a rare example of Scottish Gothic architecture that predates the Reformation. Built as a final resting place for Glasgow's industrial elite, the Necropolis was Scotland's first nondenominational graveyard. It is claimed that the 37 acre cemetery acts as the world's largest freemasonry site and the overall layout represents one giant masonic symbol. Continue to hotel with dinner on site. | Glasgow MEALS: B,D |
| 10 WEDNESDAY 21JUN17 | Begin the journey to Manchester, England this morning. On the way, visit Kilwinning Mother Lodge and Abbey in Ayrshire, an ancient lodge with a special history. Before the forming of the Grand Lodge in 1736, Mother Kilwinning was a Grand Lodge in her own right, issuing charters and warrants to Lodges wishing to enjoy the privileges of Freemasonry. Explore the museum with many artifacts on display, and the remains of Kilwinning Abbey. Continue to Manchester area with dinner at the hotel. | Manchester / Bolton MEALS: B,D |
| 11 THURSDAY 22JUN17 | This morning, board the motor coach for Stratford-upon-Avon, the hometown of William Shakespeare. Visit the sites associated with the poet, including his birthplace. Evening program option – Night at the Theatre: Attend a theatre performance at the Royal Shakespeare Company. | Warwick / Stratford-upon-Avon MEALS: B,D |
| 12 FRIDAY 23JUN17 | Journey southeast to the tour's last stop, London with day at leisure. Afternoon program option – Churchill War Rooms: Preserved to look just as they did during World War II, the Churchill War Rooms give insight into the lives of former Freemason Winston Churchill and his team during the Blitz. Experience Churchill's bedroom and the nucleus of the site, the Map Room. Evening program option – Jack the Ripper Tour: Participate in a tour following the trail of Jack the Ripper, London's most infamous and fascinating serial killer. | London MEALS: B |
