

FROSCH Names Marc Kazlauskas President of Leisure

FROSCH has named Marc Kazlauskas President of Leisure, effective March 3, 2014.

Kazlauskas stated: "I am thrilled to be joining such a dynamic and world-class travel company. I look forward to working with the exceptional FROSCH team and our outstanding supplier partners. It's an exciting time to be aligning myself with such a respected company and to help grow FROSCH exponentially over the next few years, while ensuring we continue to deliver the outstanding service and standards FROSCH is renowned for."

Kazlauskas joins FROSCH from Insight Vacations, where he was President for the last 12 years. While at Insight, Kazlauskas was responsible for growing the business over 200%, winning several industry awards and accolades, and playing a central role as Insight grew and expanded its leadership in the Premium and Luxury escorted tour business. Before joining Insight, Kazlauskas held senior executive positions at Tauck, Trafalgar, and Orient Lines. During his 20 years in the industry, Kazlauskas has always been a staunch advocate for the agency channel and established many programs and seminars on educating the trade on sales, marketing, customer service and strategic planning.

Bryan Leibman, President & CEO of FROSCH, commented: "I have the utmost regard for Marc and his leadership ability. I have been tremendously impressed by his strength of character, reputation and significant accomplishments. We are very excited to welcome him. "

Kazlauskas will be based in the company's New York office when he joins FROSCH on March 3, 2014. ✈

SPOTTED: "An Evening in Tahiti"

Christina Turrini (Leisure Travel Consultant, San Francisco) shares her love of French Polynesia with a standing room only crowd at FROSCH San Francisco's "An Evening in Tahiti."

